

PSYCHOLOGICAL SAFETY

THE KEY TO INDIVIDUAL, TEAM, AND ORGANIZATIONAL SUCCESS

LIVE LEARNING WEBINAR
WITH DON RHEEM

WHY IS PSYCHOLOGICAL SAFETY BUSINESS-CRITICAL?

Leaders are beginning to realize that prioritizing psychological safety is necessary for employees to not only perform well, but feel connected to the organization and want to stay despite this era of high turnover.

Practical, science-based approaches to creating psychological safety are hard to find. Most organizational leaders admit they need more specific guidance to implement systemic shifts that meet these new employee needs.

ABOUT THIS LIVE SESSION

In this 45-minute live webinar, Don Rheem will provide powerful, actionable guidance that can be put to immediate use. Participants will learn how focusing on psychological safety:

- Reduces mistakes, absenteeism, and turnover
- Is an effective means for strengthening retention
- Meets the brain's hardwired needs that increase performance and build relationships
- Sharpens mental acuity so work literally feels easier
- Differs from coddling or simply indulging employees
